

The Jerry Beckendorf Community Service Scholarship

Scholarship Guidelines

The Jerry Beckendorf Community Service Scholarship encourages future generations of Union activists and volunteers by recognizing outstanding student community service. Since 2003, more than $132,000 has been raised to provide awards to 122 graduating seniors of Union families living in Pierce County. A long-time community leader, Jerry Beckendorf, retired from United Way of Pierce County after working 15 years as the United Way and Pierce County Labor Council's Labor Liaison. His commitment and efforts to build a better community continue to impact the lives of Pierce County residents.

The intention of this scholarship is to reward graduating seniors who are dedicated to giving back to their community through community service. Greater consideration is given to the quality and amount of community service done by each applicant. The scholarship committee seeks to recognize students who look beyond themselves and reach out to an issue faced by our society (i.e. poverty, food insecurity, homelessness). Volunteer service will be considered for leadership roles and can be defined as helping others when or where it is needed but does not necessarily address a social issue.
